PITTSBURGH PSQUELCHED

New York Yanks Win 5 to 4

Crowd of 42,000 Fans Sees American Loop Champs Cop Series Opener

Hoyt and Kremer Routed by Barrage of Hits Fired at Forbes Field

BY ALAN J. GOULD
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5.—In a close and exciting but also loosely played battle that was considerably below the best standards of either team, the New York Yankees won a 5-to-4 victory from an erratic crew of Pittsburgh Pirates today in the opening game of the 1927 world's series.

A colorful crowd of close to 42,000, jamming Forbes Field to the edges, came out to see a battle of the Pirates defense and a host of Yankee sledge guns and Pirate sharpshooters but its expectations were completely upset. Instead, they saw Ruth lead the Yankee attack with singles instead of home runs, watched the Pirates defense backslide open in the eighth inning to permit the American League champions to gain a commanding lead and witness the bombardment of the rival right-handed pitcher—Walter Hoyt and Ray Kremer—into retirement.

YANKES OUTHIT

The Pirates outthrew the Yankees, 9 to 6. They constantly threatened Hoyt and finally drove him from the box in the eighth inning but came up with their uphill fight, the Yankees lacked the punch to win after their own mistakes, plus Kremer's wildness, had virtually tossed away the game in the third inning.

This was the center of a lively debate, all speakers seeming to favor such appointments and praising the work of President Calles. Various State representatives as groups expressed hearty co-operation and approval of the Calles administration. Crisis of "Viva, Senor Calles" echoed through the grim walls of the Chamber rooms, while Deputy Romo shouted his allegiance to the government and called for others to follow in a bitter denunciation of the uprising.

LIBERTY'S ARM STILL STRONG

But Room in Statue Closed Because Fat Person Might Get Stuck

NEW YORK, Oct. 5. (P)—The right arm of Liberty is as strong as ever, declares William A. Simpson, caretaker of the statue, shattering a popular fallacy that arose when the arm was closed to visitors.

He said the arm is closed because the space is so small it is feared a fat man or woman might get jammed.

the courts for trial. They are Garcia, Berna, Julio Lorenzo, Rodolfo Mancuelor, Modesto Hernandez and Jesus Corra.

All government employees have evacuated Jalapa, the capital of the State, and have arrived by train at Veracruz.

Communication with Tampico and Bahia is interrupted, while freight and passenger traffic has been cancelled.

A small group of rebels appeared near Paso Macho on the Mexican Railway, damaging the rails and cutting the telephone lines.

Bolting stock is being concentrated here at the request of the military authorities for operations toward Orizaba.

EXECUTED GENERAL'S BODY IN MOTHER'S HOME

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 5. (P)—With candles, symbolic of the Catholic faith, burning around his bier, but with no priest present, the body of Gen. Francisco Serrano, a Presidential candidate, one-time Secretary of War and once a heroic friend of former President Porfirio Diaz, today rested in the modest home of his aged mother in Mexico City.

Weapons, relatives, friends, and a crowd of people, surrounded the bullet-riddled body of the general, who had paid in full the price of his revolt against the government.

The man who, with Gen. Arnulfo Gomez, another Presidential candidate, is charged with having sought to overthrow the Calles government by an uprising within the army, today went to his last resting place with the simple of ceremonies, the time and place of burial being kept secret. Only a few immediate relatives and family and the closest of friends who can afford to participate without the fear of being suspected as revolutionaries are expected to accompany the body to the cemetery.

After his execution at Cuernavaca where he was captured and suffered the fate of a revolutionist, Gen. Serrano's body with that of his teen executed followers was brought to the Military Hospital in Mexico City and thence to the home of his mother's home, where it was awaited by his wife, two small sons, his brothers and other relatives.

MORROW CONFERS WITH TWO LEAGUES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. (P)—Dwight H. Morrow, new Ambassador to Mexico, conferred today with both Secretary Kellogg and Secretary Borah, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who has announced that his attitude on the Mexican situation will be guided largely by the policy of the government which he is to carry out.

The meeting between the new Ambassador and the Secretary of State was the first of a number of general study of the whole Mexican problem before the early departure of Mr. Morrow to his first diplomatic post at Mexico City.

While there was no announcement as to what transpired between Mr. Morrow and "Uncle Sam," it is understood that the Ambassador outlined in some detail his views as to the conduct of relations between the two governments.

James R. Sheffield, whom Mr. Morrow succeeds as Ambassador, arrived in Washington today. It is assumed that he will join the conference at the State Department tomorrow, giving his successor the benefit of his experience in the Mexican capital.

(Exclusive)—Enjoying the "free and quiet" which she avers is her only thought for the immediate future, Bernice Ludstrom Day, divorced "acid bride" of Darby Day, Jr., spent tonight, her first outside the walls of San Quentin Prison in fourteen months, second with friends in the East Bay district. She was released on parole early today into the custody of her mother, Mrs. Grace Ludstrom, and Dr. M. B. Gearhart of Chicago, and spirited away from the prison unexpectedly in defiance of a wish that she be saved from public notice.

Plans to go immediately to an east-bound train left through when the money for her transportation to Chicago failed to arrive as expected. It was expected during the night and, if it had arrived, she was ready to board a Chicago-bound train in the morning at a suburb. In the meantime, she had a young daughter, Mrs. Arthur W. Kiehl, a social worker who has taken considerable interest in her, saw to it that a morbid world was kept at arm's length.

NOW ON PROBATION

Mrs. Day served fourteen months of one-to-fourteen term for marrying the face of her youthful bridegroom in front of the Day home on the East Bay. She was sentenced to four years and six months in the prison for her role in the kidnapping of her husband, who was later found dead.

The "acid bride" emerged from San Quentin a different woman from the one that had been sentenced to prison. She is now a free woman, but she is still a woman who has been through a great deal.

She emerged with mingled feelings of joy and relief, but also with a sense of the burden of her past. She is now on probation for four years, and she is still a woman who has been through a great deal.

NO RECONCILIATION LIKELY

Any thought of a reconciliation with her former husband is absurd, she declared. Flaming eyes and a stamp of the foot accompanied the divorcee's declaration that she never wanted to see or hear of him again. As for the public, she said: "I don't care what they think of me."

Mrs. Day is going directly to her mother's home in Chicago, where she is going to live with her mother and her daughter. She is still a woman who has been through a great deal.

TRAVELER SHOCKED BY FLAPPERS

Chicago Opera Diva Says Women on Shipboard Make Shameless Displays

NEW YORK, Oct. 5. (Exclusive)—Luella Melius, a prima donna in the Chicago Opera Company, proclaimed on her arrival in New York today on the French liner De Grasse, that if she had a young daughter who acted as shamelessly as many of the flappers who were among the 885 women in the first cabin during the voyage she would kill her. Mrs. Melius declared that the voyage was distressing. She is a blond and wears her hair long.

"In the first cabin," she said, "were 855 women and 170 men. A majority of the women were young, or looked to be young, and most of them appeared to be set on making a conquest of some man. And most of the men were middle-aged or older."

"It may be because I have not bobbed my hair that I noticed that the most shameless and persistent of the male chasers on the boat were their hair bobbed. A scientist told me in Vienna that a woman who has her hair longer has more power of concentration. The bobbed-haired women on the De Grasse appeared to have lost their power of concentration as far as the men were concerned."

"I never saw such displays of leg—calves and knees and even thighs."

BAN MADE CLEAR

Secretary Jardine joined the tariff discussion today to make clear that certain American administrative regulations mentioned by France in her notes to the State Department as affecting her commerce are solely for the purpose of preventing introduction of foreign diseases to this country.

The quarantines were not established for tariff purposes, he said. "And when folks say we are enforcing them for commercial purposes they don't know what they are talking about."

Pointing out that the country suffers a loss of $2,000,000,000 a year from injurious insects and pests and that there are thousands of these in foreign countries, the Secretary said some are kept out of the United States by the quarantine measures adopted by Congress and administered by the Department of Agriculture.

The United States is less severe in the matter of such quarantines than most other countries, notably France, he said.

GASOLINE AND ALCOHOL DO NOT MIX, STUDENTS HEAR

FRESHMEN URGED TO AVOID FOLLOWING LEADERS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 5. (P)—There would be "two or three less fraternalities on the campus" of Stanford University if President Lyman Wilbur had as much evidence of gasoline and alcohol mixing as several of the students possess. That is what President Wilbur declared at the first student body meeting of the term today.

President Wilbur declared emphatically that gasoline and alcohol will not mix. He explained that the university controlled the roads on the extensive Stanford campus and could do with them as it saw fit. Student leaders declare this is an intimation that something might be done to curtail the use of automobiles on the campus.

Student leaders received their share of criticism when President Wilbur urged new students to avoid following the leader, but to think for themselves. He added that "too much of leadership in the university is cheap and we need more university leaders who are not cheap." There was an indication of scholastic improvement in President Wilbur's statement that 80 per cent of the freshmen returned this year to continue their studies, an increase of about 20 per cent over last year.

PARIS INQUIRY PUSHED

Exaggeration Shown in Charges on Housing of Legion Men

PARIS, Oct. 5. (P)—Inquiry among the Paris hotels today develops that there has been some exaggeration in the complaint against the American Legion housing committee and charges that there had been discrimination between the Legionnaires and other guests in the matter of charges for accommodations.

One hotel which was mentioned specifically in this connection opened its books which showed that the Legionnaires paid the same as others for a choice room with bath and breakfast, 100 francs (approximately $4) a day. It was asserted that the legion paid only a rate of 80 francs at this hotel, where there never has been a room at that price.

The Legionnaires, who are impartially considering the matter to get to the truth of it, have come to the conclusion that there is a good deal of misunderstanding which will be cleared up by an investigation.

EDWARDS HOPES FOR WET PLANK

Senator Thinks Democrats
Should Face Issue

Predicts Party Will Name
Smith as Candidate

Says Republicans Will Try to Soft-Pedal Prohibition

(With prohibition as an issue in the next Presidential campaign) There is disagreement in this among the leaders of the two major parties. This is shown by a series of interviews with the North American Newspaper Alliance by Robert Barry, well-known Washington correspondent. Mr. Barry interviewed Democratic and Republican leaders throughout the country. The interviews with the Democrats are being published now; those with the Republicans will be published later.

BY ROBERT BARRY

(Copyright, 1927, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)

NEW YORK, Oct. 5. (Exclusive)—President Coolidge's announcement of his decision not to run in 1928 precipitated a political situation "almost certain to accentuate prohibition as a paramount issue in next year's campaign," Senator Edward Edwards, Democratic wet leader from New Jersey, believes.

"Although the President never has come out frankly and boldly in favor of Volsteadism, I am," said, "he is looked upon as a tolerable prohibitionist except by a certain fanatical and bone-dry element who feel that he has been seriously embarrassed by the anti-prohibition stand of one of the ranking members of his Cabinet."

"The President's utterances urging a general and strict law-enforcement program have made him an apostle of the 'drys' rather than a sympathizer with the 'wets' and his recent expression of determination not to be a candidate in 1928 has thrown wide open a field of action with potential candidates whose known convictions on prohibition are decidedly unfriendly to the present-day administration of our antiquated laws."

"Mr. Coolidge has followed a consistent policy of allowing the enforcement machinery of the Eighteenth Amendment to function without interference from him. Conservative and honest 'drys' have felt that perhaps the President was doing all he could for their cause considering the difficulties confronting strict enforcement. The so-called 'wets' have had little to complain of, because Mr. Coolidge has kept his peace, refusing to be drawn into a wet-and-dry controversy."

"Now, with Calvin Coolidge out of the race, the increasingly pronounced divergence of prohibition views of those within his own party who are seeking his crown will inevitably lead to a long, heated convention, and a re-election fight."

Mr. Edwards, recognized as one of the outstanding wet leaders of the Senate, and a consistent foe of the Eighteenth Amendment, predicts that Gov. Smith will be nominated by the Democrats and that his nomination will doubly insure definite platform prohibition declarations by the Democratic party.

Asked his opinion whether America will be satisfied with mere law-enforcement plans in the party platform, Senator Edwards replied:

"I earnestly believe the party with the courage to face the prohibition issue with sound conviction and a bold determination to seek to right present-day evils under the Eighteenth Amendment and its enabling statute, the Volstead Act, will be rewarded with an overwhelming vote of confidence from both mass and minority."

HUSBAND SLAYER GIVES UP

Woman Returns to Asylum After Nine Years During Which She Built Up Business

CONCORD (N. H.) Oct. 5. (AP)—After building up a successful business in Troy, N. Y., under an assumed name, Mrs. Mary Polson, slayer of her husband, has returned voluntarily to the State hospital for the insane from which she fled nine years ago. She had been confined for shooting Henry H. Polson, wealthy Boston lawyer, who once was a football star at Dartmouth.

All trace had been lost from the day she disappeared until she presented herself yesterday at the home of Dwight Hall of Dover, her guardian and trustee of her estate.

ADMITS SLAYING

"Yes, I killed him," she shrieked as she was led away. "He had no business to go around with other women."

She was committed to the hospital, where yesterday she surrendered. It is near Dover, where she was born fifty-three years ago.

Mrs. Polson told authorities here that she went directly to Troy after her second escape. There she took a job as a waitress in a hotel and for three years as a servant until she had acquired sufficient funds to open her own business.

The shop was a success and under the simple legend, "We cook and serve," a distinctive sign adorned only by the picture of a mixing bowl, she built up an exclusive catering trade.

women regardless of their prohibition or anti-prohibition views.

"There are eminent and sincere minds in my own party who are in wide disagreement with me. I respect them because I have faith in their sincerity, but when any law passed by Congress places a premium on crime and corruption and encourages our Constitution, I shall always be in the vanguard of those seeking its repeal or modification."

Mr. Edwards said it is absolutely impossible to obtain accurate figures as to whether there is as much drinking today as there was prior to the Eighteenth Amendment, but pointed to insurance figures showing a decrease in the percentage of deaths from alcoholism as an indication.

While he found the attitude of union labor on the whole "extremely cynical," he said that officers of labor unions rarely express their real convictions concerning prohibition, fearing they may jeopardize their jobs.

NOT FUNDS BUT SUPPORT CALLED NEEDED

SPOKANE, Oct. 5. (AP)—Public sentiment in support of the prohibition law, rather than excessive appropriations for its enforcement, is the paramount need in relation to the liquor question, United States Senator Jones declared in a newspaper interview to be published by the Spokesman-Review tomorrow.

"What we need is a great deal more co-operation in law enforcement by our respectable citizens who believe in the supremacy of law," he said, commenting on a purported declaration of Senator Edge of New Jersey in favor of a special tax to raise $1,000,000 for enforcement of the prohibition law.

"We do not levy special taxes for the enforcement of special laws," Senator Jones said. "Why ask to deal with prohibition enforcement in a special way? Such suggestions come only from opponents of prohibition."

"The real purpose of this suggestion is to make the people believe that liquor-law enforcement is costing them a lot of money. When the fact is that we are collecting almost as much in fines, penalties and forfeitures as we are spending."

WILSON ACTED BOLDLY

"Woodrow Wilson, a minority President during his first term, vetoed Volsteadism and remained in the White House eight years. He was the only statesman of first rank within our memory who faced the prohibition issue boldly and courageously."

"Expendent and wavering tactics have always been and always will be practiced in the great game of Presidential making. But in my judgment, an issue as comprehensive and of such nation-wide appeal as prohibition has been worked and manipulated long enough as an expedient. It is high time to settle it once and for all."

"Assuming that Mr. Coolidge will not be drafted as the Republican nominee, will a 'wet' or 'dry' be favored by the G.O.P. convention?" Senator Edwards was asked.

"There is not the slightest doubt in my mind that Mr. Coolidge is definitely out of the Presidential race of 1928," declared Mr. Edwards.

"And if you will check over the names of the most promising candidates who will undoubtedly enter the lists to succeed him—Hughes, Hoover, Lowden, Dawes, Longworth, Butler, Wadsworth and Borah—you will find that only the last mentioned is an outspoken 'dry.' And even Senator Borah has very little private sympathy for Volstead-prohibition."

HUGHES LIBERAL

"Former Justice Hughes is, at the most, liberal-minded. Lowden probably would straddle. Dawes has no patience with prohibition fanatics. Longworth is 'wet.' Butler is 'wet.' Wadsworth is 'wet.' With this array of eminent Republicans to choose from, how much comfort can be found for bone-dry prohibition?"

"Following its usual careful but hypocritical course, the Republican party is going to nominate a middle-of-the-road prohibitionist or an unknown quantity and soft pedal prohibition in its platform. The Democrats will nominate Gov. Smith, whose honest opinions are known on all questions, and no matter what the convention accepts as a prohibition plank, the issue will have been accepted by his party."

"Unless Senator Borah is nominated—and this seems highly improbable to me—Anti-Saloon League strength and support will be so disrupted and disorganized that it will not be able to deliver its votes for the Republican candidate."

"In the face of revelations of Anti-Saloon League activities and exercises of power, I feel that the bone-dry voting strength of the nation will be of vastly diminishing importance in Presidential politics. Its power has been declining for years and now is the time for Miss Democracy to take advantage of her opportunity to nominate and elect a candidate whose real interest in prohibition is one of sane, practical and healthy temperance."

(Tomorrow an interview with Gov. Donahay of Ohio will be printed here.)

BRUCE SAYS HOPES OF PARTY LIES IN WET STAND

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5. (AP)—Deploring the "prevalence of some pussy-footing" among Democratic leaders, Senator Bruce of Maryland today asserted that nomination of a wet Democrat on a distinction platform is the party's only hope in the next election. If a wet Democrat is nominated, he said, defection from the Republican ranks will elect him.

Senator Bruce spoke at a luncheon of the Democratic women's clubs of Maryland.

Shooting Brings Soviet's Recall

HARBIN (Manchuria) Oct. 5. (AP)—M. Legrand, Soviet consul here, has been recalled by his government in consequence of an incident at the consulate in which a young Russian danseuse shot herself while a party was in progress.

The young woman, who asserted that the shooting was accidental, is in a critical condition in the hospital. Consul Legrand has left for Moscow.

"Extremely Cynical"

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 5. (AP)—Efforts to learn what America really thinks about prohibition indicate a strong sentiment in favor of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act, Rev. Charles Steidle, president of the church advertising department of the International Advertising Association, declared today.

He reported the results of a nation-wide study which he has been conducting during the past few months to a conference of seventy-five leaders in sociological and business fields called to consider plans for a "massive campaign for prohibition enforcement."

He said he obtained a mass of opinion from newspaper editors, superintendents of high schools, chiefs of police, health officers, employers of labor, union labor officials and clergymen of nearly 1,000 cities throughout the country.

Of about 300 representative newspaper editors in as many cities, he said, 75 per cent were in favor of the Eighteenth Amendment and 61 per cent favored the Volstead Act. "A comparatively small number of editors are opposed altogether to prohibition," he asserted. "Most of those who do not approve of it outright favor some kind of modification."

Mr. Steidle said it is absolutely impossible to obtain accurate figures as to whether there is as much drinking today as there was prior to the Eighteenth Amendment, but pointed to insurance figures showing a decrease in the percentage of deaths from alcoholism as an indication.

While he found the attitude of union labor on the whole "extremely cynical," he said that officers of labor unions rarely express their real convictions concerning prohibition, fearing they may jeopardize their jobs.

NOT FUNDS BUT SUPPORT CALLED NEEDED

SPOKANE, Oct. 5. (AP)—Public sentiment in support of the prohibition law, rather than excessive appropriations for its enforcement, is the paramount need in relation to the liquor question, United States Senator Jones declared in a newspaper interview to be published by the Spokesman-Review tomorrow.

"What we need is a great deal more co-operation in law enforcement by our respectable citizens who believe in the supremacy of law," he said, commenting on a purported declaration of Senator Edge of New Jersey in favor of a special tax to raise $1,000,000 for enforcement of the prohibition law.

"We do not levy special taxes for the enforcement of special laws," Senator Jones said. "Why ask to deal with prohibition enforcement in a special way? Such suggestions come only from opponents of prohibition."

"The real purpose of this suggestion is to make the people believe that liquor-law enforcement is costing them a lot of money. When the fact is that we are collecting almost as much in fines, penalties and forfeitures as we are spending."

WILSON ACTED BOLDLY

"Woodrow Wilson, a minority President during his first term, vetoed Volsteadism and remained in the White House eight years. He was the only statesman of first rank within our memory who faced the prohibition issue boldly and courageously."

"Expendent and wavering tactics have always been and always will be practiced in the great game of Presidential making. But in my judgment, an issue as comprehensive and of such nation-wide appeal as prohibition has been worked and manipulated long enough as an expedient. It is high time to settle it once and for all."

"Assuming that Mr. Coolidge will not be drafted as the Republican nominee, will a 'wet' or 'dry' be favored by the G.O.P. convention?" Senator Edwards was asked.

"There is not the slightest doubt in my mind that Mr. Coolidge is definitely out of the Presidential race of 1928," declared Mr. Edwards.

"And if you will check over the names of the most promising candidates who will undoubtedly enter the lists to succeed him—Hughes, Hoover, Lowden, Dawes, Longworth, Butler, Wadsworth and Borah—you will find that only the last mentioned is an outspoken 'dry.' And even Senator Borah has very little private sympathy for Volstead-prohibition."

HUGHES LIBERAL

"Former Justice Hughes is, at the most, liberal-minded. Lowden probably would straddle. Dawes has no patience with prohibition fanatics. Longworth is 'wet.' Butler is 'wet.' Wadsworth is 'wet.' With this array of eminent Republicans to choose from, how much comfort can be found for bone-dry prohibition?"

"Following its usual careful but hypocritical course, the Republican party is going to nominate a middle-of-the-road prohibitionist or an unknown quantity and soft pedal prohibition in its platform. The Democrats will nominate Gov. Smith, whose honest opinions are known on all questions, and no matter what the convention accepts as a prohibition plank, the issue will have been accepted by his party."

"Unless Senator Borah is nominated—and this seems highly improbable to me—Anti-Saloon League strength and support will be so disrupted and disorganized that it will not be able to deliver its votes for the Republican candidate."

"In the face of revelations of Anti-Saloon League activities and exercises of power, I feel that the bone-dry voting strength of the nation will be of vastly diminishing importance in Presidential politics. Its power has been declining for years and now is the time for Miss Democracy to take advantage of her opportunity to nominate and elect a candidate whose real interest in prohibition is one of sane, practical and healthy temperance."

(Tomorrow an interview with Gov. Donahay of Ohio will be printed here.)

BRUCE SAYS HOPES OF PARTY LIES IN WET STAND

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5. (AP)—Deploring the "prevalence of some pussy-footing" among Democratic leaders, Senator Bruce of Maryland today asserted that nomination of a wet Democrat on a distinction platform is the party's only hope in the next election. If a wet Democrat is nominated, he said, defection from the Republican ranks will elect him.

Senator Bruce spoke at a luncheon of the Democratic women's clubs of Maryland.

Shooting Brings Soviet's Recall

HARBIN (Manchuria) Oct. 5. (AP)—M. Legrand, Soviet consul here, has been recalled by his government in consequence of an incident at the consulate in which a young Russian danseuse shot herself while a party was in progress.

The young woman, who asserted that the shooting was accidental, is in a critical condition in the hospital. Consul Legrand has left for Moscow.

CLEAN

HE is not scared. His sound sense tells him to see his dentist twice a year—and in the meantime, he keeps his teeth clean.

You couldn't frighten him into using a dentifrice. Since boyhood he has known that the surest way to healthy teeth and strong teeth is clean teeth. When he chooses his dentifrice he selects one made to clean—one made with the sole purpose of cleaning, and cleaning better.

Most people use the same dentifrice he uses. Most dentists recommend that same dentifrice. It is Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream—designed by Colgate & Co. with the express purpose of doing the one thing that leading dental authorities agree a dentifrice must do.

Ribbon Dental Cream is made to clean teeth, and it cleans them better by the following method: As you brush, it breaks into a sparkling, bubbling foam; in this foam is calcium carbonate, a finely ground powder that loosens clinging food particles, and polishes all tooth surfaces. Next, this foam, in a detergent, washing wave, sweeps over teeth, tongue, gums—washing all surfaces, removing the very causes of tooth decay.

Let's Straighten Out This Question

B. & B. Ropes have been made in Seattle for over 20 years to serve the West Coast industries, economically and promptly, with high grade wire ropes of all kinds for all purposes; also to manufacture and deliver, on extremely short notice, special ropes for special purposes.

In this city are more John Smiths than you can shake a stick at—all kinds of John Smiths on all kinds of jobs. But they haven't traits in common just because they have a common name.

Plow Steel Wire Rope is likewise a common name—common to all cables made of plow steel wire; all plow steel wire has a common "tensile strength." Yet three makes of Plow Steel Rope will probably differ as greatly in elastic as three John Smiths. One may be elastic but hard to bend. Another may be pliable but not resilient. A third may have different qualities—and quality—every time you buy it.

Not so with B. & B. Plow Steel Ropes. For years we have had the wire for this grade of rope drawn to our own specifications—a wonderful balance of strength, elasticity and pliability. We do not accept one coil of plow steel wire unless it is up to par on all three counts. And our specially designed, automatic machinery produces rope from this wire that cannot be other than uniform from year to year.

If your hoisting, hauling or dragging machinery calls for "Plow Steel Rope," see that it is B. & B. Plow Steel, superior rope at the "usual" price.

RADIO PARLEY RULES DRAWN

Way Clear for Consideration of Special Problems

Question of Voting Power
Fails to Come Up

Delegates to be Received by Coolidge Friday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. (AP)—By agreement upon rules of procedure and other details, the International Radio-telegraphic Conference today cleared the way to consideration of the many problems before it.

With Secretary Hoover presiding, only minor amendments were offered to the proposed rules. It was agreed that the debate should be in English as well as French. The controversial question of the voting power of the various countries was avoided today, since no record vote was taken, and all motions were carried practically unanimously. The rules only direct reference to vote specifies that in committee each country has one vote only.

The question of voting strengths in the plenary sessions is expected to arise as soon as the necessity for a record vote shall come.

The creation of ten committees was authorized and the United States, Great Britain, Germany, Uruguay, Italy, France, Belgium, Japan and China were elected to supply chairmen for them. One committee also was authorized to report upon the advisability of considering in the present conference the reports of an international committee which met in 1926 and advocated the reduction and standardization of all code words to five letters. The Paris telegraph

GOOD DIED YOUNGER IN PAST

Great Men of History Reached Peak of Genius at 50
Years, But World Leaders Now Keep Pace at 70;
Age No Bar to Deeds, Says Physician

CHICAGO, Oct. 5. (AP)—The good died younger in the past than they do at present, Dr. W. A. Newman Dorland, a Chicago physician, says in an article published in the Current Welfare Magazine of the State of Illinois.

Basing his assertions on the study of the lives of 400 famous men of history, including Washington, Lincoln, Darwin, Huxley, Emerson, Bal-zac, Shakespeare, Newton and Michelangelo, Dr. Dorland finds that the average end of their productivity in their respective lines of genius was fifty years, and that they died younger than present-day great men.

"Whereas the production peak for great men of history averaged at the age of 50, world leaders now living conference of 1926, created the international committee and asked that its report be considered at the next radio conference. Opposition to consideration of the question at this time was reported to be brewing in various delegations.

The delegates, who will be received by President and Mrs. Coolidge on Friday, were guests tonight of Secretary Kellogg at a reception at the Pan-American Union.

ODDIE IN FIGHT TO HELP MINING

Senator Seeks More Funds
for Federal Bureaus

Geological Survey Included in Plans for Aid

Nevada Man Points Need to Extend Research

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. (Exclusive) Senator and Mrs. Tasker Oddie of Nevada, who have many friends and relatives in Los Angeles and other sections of California, arrived in Washington yesterday and are settled for the winter in their home at 2123 Leroy Place. Senator Oddie came to urge proper and sufficient appropriations for the Bureau of Mines and the Geological Survey. In this campaign for adequate funds he represents the solid ranks of all those in the United States interested in the mineral development, now and in the future, to a point where the United States will be independent of other nations for all metals and chemicals needed for industry and science.

Senator Oddie in indicating today that he would make a determined fight for more money for mining and geological research by the Federal government said:

"Our mineral industry is of equal importance with our agricultural industry, although its annual production is only about $6,000,000,000, as against about $12,000,000,000 for agriculture. Now mineral products furnish over 50 per cent of the freight for our transportation systems.

DUTY NEGLECTED
"Our government is guilty of gross discrimination against and a shameful neglect of its duty toward the mineral industry. It provides annual appropriations for the agricultural industry of $138,000,000 and only about $6,000,000 for the mineral industry.

"The mineral industry of the United States employs approximately 2,200,000 workers, including 400,000 engaged in the steel industry, 750,000 in coal mining and 750,000 in the oil industry. We may assume that these workers account for a family of five persons each, so that the total number of our citizens directly dependent upon the mineral industry may be said to approximate 11,- 000,000, or about 9 per cent, of the country's entire population. The Bureau of Mines, the Federal agency which represents this vast industry, with its legions of workmen and billions of dollars of annual production. At the present time, the total amount at disposal of the Bureau of Mines, for all annual purposes, is roundly $1,750,- 000. There is no question but that this sum is absolutely inadequate from the standpoint of the tremendous interests involved.

NEED OF FUNDS
"To our service has long been rendered to all the mineral industries through the production statistics prepared by the United States Geological Survey and published in the annual mineral resources volumes. It was hoped that when this work was transferred to the Bureau of Mines in the Department of Commerce the scope of the work would be greatly increased, but unfortunately only slight new appropriations were made for this purpose. I am convinced that if both the Bureau of Mines and the Geological Survey had been equipped with adequate funds we would today be materially further advanced in the solution of the Mississippi flood problem. It is also highly probable that we should have avoided the uneconomic condition prevailing in the oil and coal industries—a condition responsible for the loss of hundreds of millions of dollars a year."

BOULDER DAM ACTION
PREDICTED BY SENATOR

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. (AP)—Action at the coming session of Congress on the Boulder dam legislation was predicted today by Senator Oddie, Democrat, Nevada, after a call on President Coolidge.

The Nevada Senator said he believed the Boulder proposal will be aided closely with the Mississippi flood legislation because both are imperative to the safety and well-being of a large number of persons in river valleys, but forecast that they will be dealt with in separate legislative proposals.

Senator Oddie expressed the belief that the rumor that Senator Johnson of California and Secretary Hoover had reached a political trade agreement centering on the Boulder dam legislation, was "absolutely without foundation."

Memory of Legion Convention at Paris Will Linger With French

THE American Legion has concluded its convention at Paris and the main body of Legionnaires is on its way back to the United States, but the memory of those hectic days in the French capital will live long in the minds of only of the Americans, but of the French people as well. The American Legion parade which opened festivities in Paris was a novel and interesting sight to Parisians, who do not yet understand fully how so many thousands of Americans could be recruited to journey thousands of miles over land and sea for a few days of business convention and pleasure seeking. These pictures, depicting activities of the Legionnaires during their stay in Paris, are through the courtesy of Bullock's, who received them through their Paris representative.

YANKS PLAYED BEST GAME

Moriarty, Tiger Manager, Claims New York Team Showed Better Baseball

BY GEORGE MORIARTY
Manager, Detroit Baseball Team

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Oct. 5.—New York played better baseball to win the first game of the world series, 5 to 4. With the exception of a few live incidents when base runners crashed into waiting fielders, this opening encounter of the world series was a very ordinary ball game.

To me the most surprising feature of the individual weaknesses of the team of the game was the failure of the pitching aces of the two teams. Denny Kruger of Pittsburgh and Walter Johnson of New York, who failed to finish. Kruger, admittedly was not himself. Undoubtedly he started out with the idea of feeding nothing but curve balls to the mauling Yankees but his plan kept him in the hole constantly as the new York team failed to offer at his outside delivery. Kruger's weakness seemed to be that he tried too much to pitch to this afternoon and an interesting match is expected, for Ben figures to make the ball quaker unless some of his best efforts.

Hunter was forced to win two singles matches yesterday to reach the quarter-finals, Lionel Ogden, Stanford star, and Bob Laird, who attended the U.C.L.A. being the victims. After winning the first three games from Hunter, Ogden blew up, or maybe it was Hunter who settled down, and lost, 6-4, 6-3. Laird was defeated, 6-1, 6-2, but the match was more interesting than the score would indicate.

HUNTER TAKLES NEER
Hunter faces Phil Neer of Portland, who used to perform on Stanford's net team, in one of today's feature matches at 3:30. Neer achieved the quarter-final by eliminating Dale Isenhardt, 6-1, 6-4.

Only third-round matches were played in the other quarters. Alonso going into the fourth round of his bracket by defeating Henry Carter, 6-2, 6-1, without much trouble. This morning at 11 o'clock Alonso will meet Leonard Dworkin, with the winner scheduled to meet the winner of the Mervyn Griffin-James Ruchser match at 2:30 in the afternoon.

FORBES FIELD (Pittsburgh) Oct. 5. (AP)—The glee that comes of hard-fought victory and the quiet tension of defeat pervaded the dressing-rooms today after the Yankees pounded the Pirates into a 5-to-4 defeat in the first game of the world's series.

OBSERVATIONS

By THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER

THE boys who are already beginning to worry about that New Year's Day game at Pasadena had better leave the worrying along that line to a guy who really knows what worrying over New Year's Day games is—Mr. Leslie S. Henry.

Who knows but what the Trojans themselves will be out there promoting off-tackle in their well-known manner? This 1927 model Jones machine looks like a potential whirlwind although it may prove to be only a gentleephyr.

There you have one guy's opinion of the situation which may or may not be any good. He did pipe up, however, with another thought to the effect that the only way anybody ever would stop Drury was to nail him before he ever got under way.

TOLEDO IS VICTOR IN BALL TILT

Jess Barnes Hurls Win Over Buffalo in "Little World Series"

TOLEDO (O.) Oct. 5. (P)—Jess Barnes, a veteran of two world's series, pitched Toledo to another victory over Buffalo, 3 to 2, in the junior baseball classic today, giving the American Association champions a lead over Buffalo of four games out of five for the Class AA title.

Needling only one more victory, the Mud Hens tonight cast eager eyes on the players' pool of the series game receipts, which includes the first five games just finished. The winning club members will receive between $1100 and $1500 apiece and the losers about $750 each.

The total receipts of the five games were $58,876.40 after deduction of the Federal tax. The winning club's pool to be divided among the players is $28,448.53 and the losing club's player pool is $18,523.28. This is the second largest sum ever to be divided in the junior world's series. The two Buffalo games drew $28,068.71 and the three Toledo games $23,818.69. The players divide about 84 per cent of these sums.

If tomorrow's game does not decide the series, the teams will return to Buffalo and resume the conflict there Saturday.

A reception revealed only by those given Southern California's adopted son Jack Dempsey, will be given Welterweight Champion Joe Dundee, who arrives here Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, accompanied by Max Waxman, his manager Vince Dundee, his brother, promoter Dick Donald, and several others.

Prominent Los Angeles Italians have outlined a great greeting for the Baltimore boy, who is a favorite with his countrymen all over the country. A band, parade, and a luncheon at a downtown hotel are included in the welcome greeting to be extended Joe Dundee, who comes here with Ace Hudkins the night of the 29th inst. in Wrigley Field.

HOLLY BACK AT OXY Tom Holly, erstwhile third-sacker of the Hollywood Stars of the Coast League, has re-entered his Alma-Mater at Occidental College to resume his studies which he deserted last February when he decided that a pay check looked much bigger than competition in college baseball and football teams.

This great new discovery saves your skin—

Read how scientific men learned to control hydrolysis—the enemy that caused your old shaving cream to leave your face dry . . . hot . . . smarting. A great new shaving cream prevents all that and gives a faster, smoother shave.

MEN everywhere are learning that the morning shave and a stinging skin need not go together.

Once shavers accepted discomfort and skin injury as a necessary part of being well-groomed. There seemed nothing to do about it.

Then science discovered a way to control hydrolysis. Hydrolysis is the scientific name for the process through which free alkali is released when soap is dissolved in water. All soap—and this includes shaving soaps—is made with caustic soda or caustic potash (lye).

As long as this caustic constituent is combined in the soap it is harmless, but when water is added a part of the soap "hydrolyzes," forming free alkali. It is this alkali, so liberated, which, in combination with the action of the soap, causes skin irritation.

No more shaving discomfort

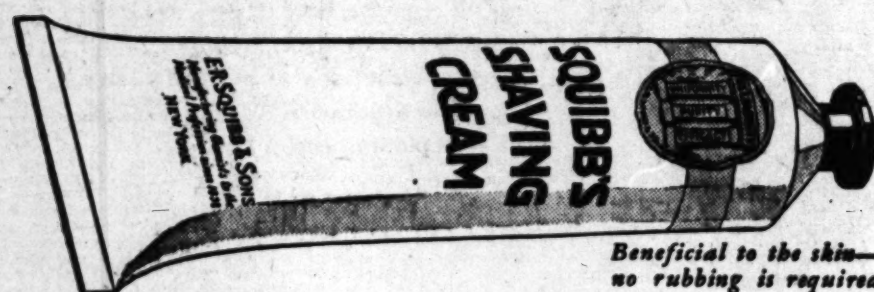

But when Squibb chemists learned how to reduce the amount of free alkali released by hydrolysis to one part in 325,000 they perfected a great shaving cream. It took them four years of constant, patient experiment. But in the end they made a cream that was not only more efficient than the old creams, but which was non-irritant as well! A cream that whips up quickly into rich, creamy, moist lather. That contains emollient ingredients which are beneficial to the skin. That masters the toughest beard in quick time. That leaves your skin, no matter how close you shave, smooth, flexible, refreshed. That gives a truly marvelous shave in either hot or cold water.

No need for soothing lotions with Squibb's Shaving Cream. No need for hot applications. Simply wet your face, whisk up the rich, soothing lather and shave. It will be the sweetest, smoothest shave you ever had.

Whittier PENDLETON FEATURE

Philbrook to Have Strong Forward Wa

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE
This Post-Bruin game Saturday afternoon marks a critical point in the football progress of U.C.L.A. It would be exceedingly embarrassing for the Bruin to lose at this stage of affairs, and the belligerent attitude by Whittier College is causing Coach Bill Spaulding no little worry.

The Poets soon confidence from every part, a confidence based on seven victories and one tie in the past eight years, and the fact that Whittier has a team equal, if not better than that of last season. Whittier as a community has always backed its seat of higher learning to the limit in all things athletic, and business will be somewhat disrupted when several thousand Post fans move over to Moore Field.

Perhaps the feature of a game back full of high lights will be the individual performances of Capt. O. Pendleton and Joe Fleming, who furnish the punch of their respective teams. Both are versatile backs. The well-known runner and expert defender players. Pendleton is one of the best punters in the conference and Fleming's placement kicks are always a threat.

The two lines which will face each other vary but little from last year's but who remember their foot will perhaps recall last year's game when the Poets scored a 16-0 victory. Considerable credit for that win goes to Tom Denny, who captured the pigskin to his home and decided through the whole Bruin team for a touchdown which stunned the Bruin's athletes into submission. Much credit, however, was due the Post forwards who outplayed the Bruin line which was considered superior on paper, but proved otherwise.

Again the Bruin line, with veterans from end to end, is considered an edge over a Post line which will line up practically the same as last year. Coach George Philbrook has a smart pair of ends in Russell and Weaver, the former being one of the best wing-tacklers in the conference. Kimball at one tackle is hard to beat, and Gilbert and Bennett look good for the other job.

Chenger at guard and Ashton at center have a slight edge on the Bruin's where sophomores have replaced last year's veterans. Epstein being matched for French, and Brown and Cole taking Davie's and Conley's places at guard.

Both teams knocked off hard training Tuesday afternoon, and will make things easy until game time.

GRUDGE FIGHT STARS MAIN-STREET CARD

There will be a wild time at the Main-Street Athletic Club Saturday night, judging from the fight card manager Carlo Curtis has scheduled for that night.

Joe Pimental and Henry Palam, who put on a rip-roaring battle at Fresno a few months ago, and which Palam won after breaking through opponent's jaw, will tangle in an eight-round main event, winner-take-all. It will be a grudge fight of the first water. All of the other bouts on the card hold promise of being slugging matches.

Young Perry and Clarence Moulden in the six-round semi-wind-up, and Larry Liles and Ray Salisbury clash in the six-round special; Johnny Cruz and Pancho Aguilar will battle in one of the four-rounders, and Jimmy and Stanley Risdon in the other.

VISALIA TO PLAY TAFT GRID SQUAD

"Pop" Toomey former University of California captain, now coach of the Taft Junior College, has arranged for a game to be played between the Visalia Junior College and the Taft team on the 15th inst. Ben Cameron of Washington is coach of the Visalia Junior College.

On Armistice Day the Visalia Junior College squad will play the Holbrook Junior College gridgers in an exhibition game at Tulare and on the 15th inst. will meet the Fresno State team at Fresno. The Visalia team has also been arranged for.

TWO GOLFERS MAKE HOLES IN ONE HERE

Two holes-in-one were made at Sunset Field yesterday. The first was made on the 178-yard eighth hole by A. V. Cox. Cox is coming right along in the golfing world, it was only last week that he took second prize in the beginners' tournament held on these grounds.

AMADOR, KING DRAW IN WILMINGTON GO

Wesley King fought a ten-round draw with Pedro Amador in the main event at the Wilmington Athletic Club last night. Amador had King for counts of nine and one in the second round, but the latter came back strong to earn a draw.

Amador scored a technical knockout over Abe Tesell in the special match.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Oct. 5. (AP)—Stock prices followed an erratic trend in the curb market today, the majority of issues drifting toward lower levels at the close. Numerous active shares opened sharply lower, rallied smartly, then sagged again. A few miscellaneous issues, including some of the chain stores, displayed consistent strength in some instances, retaining the gains which placed them in new high territory.

Bandit Corporation was the individual feature, changing hands in large amounts and scoring an extreme jump of 8 points to 11 1/2, closing on a fraction below that figure. Johna Manville, Trucon Steel and a few others also were strong.

Celluloid and Cellulose issues all followed the general up and down trend, closing 1 to more than 6 points below yesterday's final figures. New York Central (when issued) and Pittsburgh and Lake Erie also sustained net losses after earlier rallies. Oils were heavy with exception of Margay, which was marked up to 45.

United Light and Power "A" was heavily traded in but held close to yesterday's close, while most of the public utility shares were slightly lower.

Stutta, the only active automotive issue, sold up to 17 for a 1 1/2-point gain after a weak opening.

AN OLD RULE and A GOOD RULE
AN old and profitable investment rule to follow is to "buy securities when they are not in popular demand and hold them for market appreciation."

Note how well this rule applies to the oil industry. Less than a year ago petroleum securities were one of the most popular forms of investment. Today, due to temporary over-production and falling crude oil prices, these securities are not in such demand and their prices in many cases are decidedly out of line.

With the recovery of the petroleum industry, which must surely come sooner or later, prices should rapidly restore themselves. For sound and profitable investment we suggest Richfield Oil Company of California 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock, priced at market.

MANY OFFSHORE STRANGERS DUE

Fourteen Newcomers at Port Coming in October

Hamburg-American Service Leads With Four

One Intercoastal Carrier to Make Initial Call

Thirteen vessels, of 48,000 net tons, will pay their initial visits during the present month to Los Angeles Harbor in new and augmented offshore services. The majority of the newcomers are en route or on the berth at European ports.

Notable in the list are the four new steamers of the Hamburg-American Line, which are en route or on the berth at Bremen for the West Coast, and the Westfalen, which is en route or on the berth at Bremen for the West Coast.

Three new ships of the world tramp fleet of the King Line, Ltd., are due during the month. These are the King Robert, from Boston, and the King James, from the United Kingdom, both under charter to the Canadian Transportation Company; and the King Gruffydd, from Cardiff, under charter to the British Steamship Co.

Two other ships are en route in transatlantic service. The British steamer Scapellato, from Antwerp, under charter to Flood Brothers, and the new British motor liner Pacific Reliance, from Manchester, September 21, are en route or on the berth at European ports.

Other ships from foreign ports are the British tanker Parnassos, from Bremen, under charter to the Albers Brothers; the Norwegian motor liner Heim, from South America; the Italian tanker Tevere, from Genoa; and the British tanker Tiber, from Genoa.

In the intercoastal trade, the only new vessels due this month are the Munster, from Seattle, and the Munster-McCormick intercoastal steamer, from Seattle, both en route or on the berth at European ports.

A new plan for the extension of the Union Oil Company at Berth No. 150 and 151, on the turning basin, also is approved.

Controller Burt Edwards reported to the board that the port revenues for August totaled $169,986, exceeding the budget of $170,000. Receipts for August, 1926, by $22,517.

The various departments were as follows: Dockage, $17,750.00; wharfage, $65,000.00; storage, $102,000.00; land rentals, $22,550.00.

Use of the photo-electric cell, as recently perfected by Dr. Robert C. Burt, of the California Institute of Technology, in a new smoke-detecting machine, was demonstrated yesterday at the harbor.

A new apparatus which is expected to be generally adopted for ship use on the Coast, is extremely simple in operation. A beam of light from an ordinary incandescent lamp is focused on the instrument control, which the Burt photo-electric cell, thus setting up a certain electro-chemical action. Whenever this beam of light is disturbed or crossed, by either a smoke object, fog or smoke, it creates an electric contact and alarm bell. It is already in use on the Coast as a burglar-alarm system.

On a 20,000-mile voyage from Norway to the Antarctic, the Norwegian whaling factory ship N. T. Nielsen, under command of Capt. Hans Andersen, is today headed for the West Coast by way of Hobart, Tasmania. She will arrive at Los Angeles in the latter part of the month.

The Nielsen, largest whaling factory ship in existence, is due here on the 8th inst., from Norway via Norfolk, also route to the Rose Sea whaling grounds.

A full working model of John Barrymore's 110-foot schooner was completed after six months of construction.

Life of Police Chief Menaced by Man Wielding Ice Pick

TRIES TO BREAK PAST OFFICERS

Assaults Overpowered by Three Policemen

Man Suddenly Leaps Gate Crying Vengeance

Sent to Psychopathic Ward for Sanity Test

For ten minutes yesterday afternoon the life of Chief of Police Davies was in jeopardy when a roughly dressed man, armed with a long ice pick, rushed to a needle point, and trying about for vengeance, attempted to force his way into the Chief's office at Central Police Station.

Only the presence of Officers Blake, Cotel and Justin standing at the time near the front office prevented the infuriated man from breaking through to the inner office of the Chief's suite, where the chief executive was sitting at his desk. So sudden and unexpected was the man's attack that stenographers and clerks were thrown into a state of panic by his wild antics and cries before the three officers succeeded in disarming and subduing him. When, after a few minutes, the man refused to tell why he had come to break into the Chief's office, but repeated that he had a secret revenge against the police department, the officers decided to take him to the psychopathic ward of the General Hospital for observation by Detective Lieutenant Connelley. He said his name is Joseph D. Meyer, and his age 38 years.

OFFICER SUSPICIOUS
The unexpectedness of the man's actions almost enabled him to reach the Chief. According to Officer Cotel, who is stationed in the outer office as orderly, the man sat quietly for almost ten minutes on a bench with several other persons waiting to see the Chief. After watching him for some time, Cotel, suspicious of the man's actions, asked him what he wanted. The man got up quietly and walked over to where Cotel was standing inside of the high front counter in the outer office.

"I want to see the Chief," he said. "Cotel asked him what he wanted to see the Chief about. The man at this time had the ice pick concealed in his belt beneath his coat, according to the officer.

JUMP OVER GATE
"I want to see the Chief," the subject repeated. "Cotel told him that he could not see the Chief unless he had an appointment.

For a few seconds the man leaped against the counter mockingly. Then with a wild cry, he drew the ice pick from his belt, and leaped over the low existing gate leading into the office of the secretary to the Chief. Cotel, Justin and Blake sprang for him. Blake and Cotel pinned the man's arms as Justin twisted the ice pick from his hand. He was roughly pushed into a rear room, and held in a chair. Detective Lieutenant Connelley was sent for and in a few moments had the man quieted.

FORGERY CHARGED TO TAXICAB DRIVER

Ralph Kruger, a Yellow taxicab driver, was accused of forgery in a complaint issued yesterday by Deputy Attorney General. The complaint was brought by Miss Louise Boyd, 34 years of age, a stenographer. The young woman said she gave the driver a check for 70 cents for a taxi bill and that he raised it and cashed it for $70. Kruger is under arrest.

CONTEST ON JUDGE'S WILL

Requests of $20,000 by Summerfield Unquestioned, But Guardianship of Daughter at Issue

A contest over the estate of the late Judge Summerfield of the Superior Court developed yesterday when two attorneys filed documents in proceedings for probate, one a will made in 1924, and the other a codicil to the will, signed September 20, last, ten days before Judge Summerfield died.

The bequest of the estate, valued at $50,000, are not questioned in the proceedings. The only issue presented is as to the guardianship of Judge Summerfield's daughter by a former marriage, Catherine Jane Summerfield.

The will, after explaining that because of the property is community property one-half of it will go to the widow, Mrs. Ethel Summerfield by operation of law, specifically disinherits her and bequeaths half of the estate to Miss Summerfield. It also is explained that no bequest is made in favor of Ethel Jean Summerfield, an adopted daughter, as she is the daughter of Mrs. Summerfield by a former marriage and may expect to inherit her mother's share of the estate.

The original will then directs that Judge Summerfield's sister, Mrs. Rose Smith of Pasadena, or his aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Jacobs, be appointed guardian of the estate and person of Catherine Jane Summerfield.

PORT QUESTION BOBS UP ANEW

Stevedoring Issue Revived Before Harbor Board

Opening of Docks to Private Operators Again Sought

Applications Received and Held for Consideration

The question of whether private companies are to be permitted to do stevedoring and load and unload railroad cars on the municipal wharves is again an open issue before the Harbor Commission. It was thought that the problem had been definitely settled at the time the commission recently denied the application of Western Terminal Company, but when several similar applications were read yesterday President Allen instructed General Manager Cole to notify the petitioners that their requests were received and will be held under consideration pending a final determination of the commission.

The application of the Western Terminal Company to do private stevedoring on the municipal wharves was turned down after the commission received communications from practically every local organization interested in shipping. These organizations, including the Chamber of Commerce, urged that the present system of allowing the steamship companies to do all stevedoring and unloading and loading of cars on a fixed scale be undisturbed.

The communications pointed out that if private stevedoring companies are permitted to use the docks a great amount of confusion and delay in the handling of freight would be created, pilfering might be greatly increased and the present peaceful labor conditions could easily be turned into chaos by the importation of men from other parts of the country who would work for less and oversupply the demand.

SOAP COMPANY CASE
Subsequent to the filing of these communications and despite the commission's action in denying the application to the terminal company, the Los Angeles Soap Company asked permission to handle its own freight over the docks. The claim was made that handling charges could be greatly reduced by a private company, doubtless to the benefit of the community. The company stated it intended to obtain labor from the same market as the steamship operators, and that it would handle its own freight over the docks. The claim was made that handling charges could be greatly reduced by a private company, doubtless to the benefit of the community.

The soap company's request later was withdrawn. The company's request was not sent out, according to harbor officials. And again it was held for consideration. However, President Allen of the commission gave his instructions as to the matter to the Harbor Board. The commission states that the company can handle its own freight over the docks, but that private companies will do it for 17 cents a ton, if private companies can handle it for 30 cents a ton.

HANDS FULL

The next President of the United States will have his hands full—plenty.

It is necessary that he should be equipped with an international type of mind. America is rich and the other countries are so poor that we will be lucky if we do not find ourselves fighting a coalition of world powers in the next generation.

The future will be written very largely by whoever is President of the United States from 1928 to 1932.

CITY BOOKS EVIDENCE IN POWER SUIT

Edison Counsel Seek to Prove Steam Plant Will be Waste of Money

Production of City Hall records by which it is sought to prove that the Bureau of Power and Light will waste millions of the taxpayers' money by the construction of a steam-powered stand-by electric plant at the Harbor out of the bureau's revenues brought by the Southern California Edison Company, as a taxpayer, in Superior Judge Tappan's court yesterday.

Attorneys Robert M. Murphy and G. C. Larkin for the company, introduced documents from the power and light bureau's budget estimates and other figures showing that $1,000,000 in bonds were voted in 1926 for the acquisition, construction, completion and extension of electric power units for the city.

Against continual objections presented by the attorneys for the power and light bureau, the plaintiffs sought to show that revenues from the city electric business should be utilized to pay principal and interest on bonds heretofore issued by the department, instead of for an extra plant at present the bureau is estimated would cost $3,200,000.

Secretary James P. Vroman and S. Decker, assistant controller, were recalled to the stand to identify budget figures. Carl K. Chapin of the bureau and Deputy Clerk Warren Browning were witnesses during the afternoon.

LEGAL RIGHT NOT INVOLVED IN ACTION

Commenting on the budget suit now being tried before Superior Judge Tappan, Chief Electrical Engineer E. F. Scattergood of the Power Bureau yesterday stated:

"It is impossible to keep in mind the fact that the legal right of the Power Bureau to construct and operate a stand-by steam generating plant is not involved in this suit. Several months ago the Southern California Edison Company, doubtless regarding itself as a competitor of the city power bureau, filed suits against the city for the right to construct a steam plant from constructing a steam plant. The courts decided in these suits that the power bureau has the full legal right to construct and operate a stand-by steam generating plant as part of its system, and in order to assure its 280,000 consumers reliable service."

DAVIS FAVORS PICKING ALIENS

issues for the Republican campaign, to which Rogers replied:

"Why should I give any new issue to the Republican party, if I find any, when the Democratic party would pay $1,000,000 if I could find them just one issue?"

After inspecting the whole studio, Davis expressed himself as amazed to find that motion pictures are the most representative form of industry in America.

"Every type of labor is employed," he said, "even musicians and, in addition, studies have been made of the actors and actresses to cope with. Labor is more temperamental than any other industry. Why, this morning I was held up fifteen minutes and couldn't break into a room because the subject of the 'radio' had lost his music and wouldn't let the door be smashed in without the proper musical accompaniment."

Secretary Davis said he estimated that in a plant such as the First National there are 118 classifications of labor employed.

"The reason we are so far ahead of Europe in industry is that our manufacturers, as their business grows, discard outworn plants and build new ones on new sites, with the latest technical improvements and efficient methods, while European manufacturers simply add on to old and antiquated plants," the Secretary said.

Secretary Davis will be the guest tonight of Moses Lodge No. 184, known as the greater Los Angeles chapter, at its clubhouse on Olive street, according to announcement last night by Secretary Elton Long. After the dinner, which will include Mayor Cuyler and Chief of Police Davis among its guests, Mr. Davis will initiate the largest class ever inducted by the Southern California organization.

LABOR SITUATION HIGHLY SATISFACTORY, SAYS DAVIS
PASADENA, Oct. 4. (Exclusive)—There are comparatively few labor troubles in the United States at the present time, and the entire labor situation in this country is highly satisfactory as compared to other countries of the world, Secretary of Labor Davis told members of the Pasadena Elvans Club at a dinner at the Hotel Vista Del Arroyo tonight.

More rigid immigration restrictions were also urged by Secretary Davis, declaring that the admission of aliens should be determined by the law of supply and demand and the need for foreign labor in this country, rather than by the desire of foreigners for admittance.

One of the greatest tides of immigration is now coming from Mexico, he declared. About 67,000 Mexicans were admitted to the United States during the last year, he said. Practically the only menace to labor lies in the overdevelopment of production at the present time, he said, which is making it necessary for men to work fewer hours a week in order that there may be employment for all.

Dr. Russell E. Simpson, president of the club, was toastmaster. Federal Judge E. J. Henning accompanied Secretary Davis to the dinner.

RADIO CHAIN FOR UNIONS URGED

It is proposed. Another resolution calls for union representation on public vocational education bodies and for watchfulness of such education against industrial association, open-shop or American plan propaganda. An economic department of Northwestern University, Chicago, is condemned in another resolution as disseminating principles not in accord with federation principles.

Three resolutions have to do with the Colorado River. One by the California State Federation of Labor recommends government building and control of a 580-foot dam in Boulder Canyon for flood control, water conservation and power generation purposes, and building of the so-called all-American canal, all as proposed in the Swing-Johnson bill in Congress. One by the Phoenix (Ariz.) Central Labor Union proposes a United States-Mexico treaty disposing of allocation of Colorado River water between the two. Another by the same body has to do with State rights to power revenue that is to come from the river project.

SHERMAN LAW SET
Three resolutions have to do with the Federal Sherman antitrust law. Two would amend it, one would repeal it. Distortion of the law is charged in court decisions under it, and in which union tactics have been severely restricted through injunctions. The unionists are especially up in arms against what they declare is this government by injunction instead of by law. Another somewhat similar resolution aims at limiting the jurisdiction of courts of equity in favor of union principles.

Restoration of American merchant marine is advocated in a resolution. The same condemns the United States Shipping Board. A host of resolutions has to do with seamen. One condemns the Sea Service Bureau, another would restrict enlistment of sailors to limitations favorable to unionism, another would place enforcement of navigation laws in the hands of the Department of Labor, and still another calls for an eight-hour day for sailors with consequent enlargement of crew.

Employment only of American citizens on public work would be required by one resolution. Others along that line indorse severely restrictive measures against immigration of Mexican and other foreign labor, some of which is averred to slip in under a loose clause permitting entry of artists.

CIVIL SERVICE QUESTION
A host of resolutions have to do with creation of a court of appeals from Civil Service Commission decisions, against efficiency studies of employees on government work, for shorter hours and more pay for various government employees, against convict labor, more money for the Department of Labor, and with governmental activities not in conformance now with union principles.

Pardons for Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings, serving life terms for murder in the San Francisco Preparedness Day outrage of 1916, are sought in a resolution. Some of the other resolutions have to do with keeping radicals and Communists out of unions.

Other resolutions summarized are: Against the war on Nicaragua; for Mississippi flood prevention work; less hours and more pay for oil workers; for old-age pensions; for Philippine independence; for extensions of union activities in many ways, and for a movement to have union members wear only union-made collars.

The whole of the session yesterday was taken up with a presentation by British unionists of the union situation in England. The afternoon session was taken up with a presentation by friends and relatives being taken for a tour of the city and environs. A Britisher will take the floor today to discuss further on the situation in England.

Wood Remains on Way to Visit Coolidge

Message of Good Will for Los Angeles Given

YOUR BABY and MINE

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

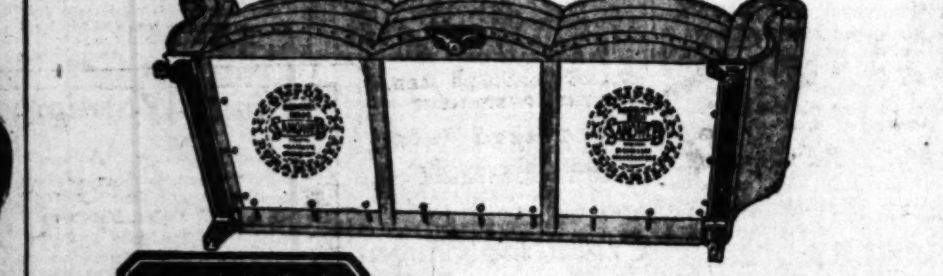

A GOOD HEALTHY BABY
Mrs. A. B. writes: I read your column daily and get many helpful suggestions from it. My baby is six months of age, weighs eighteen pounds and has one tooth. He takes his bottle at 7 o'clock in the morning, nurse and then has orange juice and cod liver oil. He plays then until his bath time, when he has cereal and milk and sleeps until almost time for another feeding. He goes to bed at 8 o'clock at night and sleeps until the next morning without a feeding. At 8 o'clock I give him prune juice and pulp, which helps to move his bowels. He is inclined to be constipated. My questions are: Is it necessary for me to wake him for a 10 o'clock feeding when he sleeps through the whole night and is satisfied? How small an amount of orange juice can the baby receive, he dislikes it so? He seems to have almost no soft spot on the top of his head, or at least a very small one. Has this any significance?

Answer: As long as the baby is such a fine weight and is satisfied with four feedings a day, there is no reason to wake him at night. If you dilute the orange juice two or three times with boiled water, the baby should not dislike it. You can always substitute tomato juice for orange juice, using the fresh or canned tomatoes.

The soft spot is ordinarily open until about 18 months of age. A very wide spot indicates late development and undernourishment if it is sunken. An early closure sometimes indicates a latent mental development. I should not worry about this so long as the baby seems normal in every way, and judging from your letter, he seems even more advanced than the average.

Any mother who cares to check up on her baby's diet may write this department for the booklet, "Feeding the Baby from Six Weeks to Six Years." A self-addressed, stamped envelope will be inclosed with every request for a booklet for a personal answer to an individual problem.

CITY AND COUNTY AT WAR

Bakersfield Ousts Chamber of Commerce from Rooms on First Floor of Municipal Building

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 5.—A bloodless war, brewing for months, was opened this morning by the city of Bakersfield against Kern county to force the latter to evacuate immediately the County Chamber of Commerce display rooms and offices on the first floor of the City Hall.

L. D. Moon and J. H. Moon declared that Chamber of Commerce had told them to proceed with work and use as much force as possible in doing no injury to displays or showcases.

The bridge is one of the most heavily traveled in the county being on the main route between Fresno and Reedley. It is a wooden trestle bridge and is in poor condition.

YOSEMITE GROWTH PRAISED

Congressional Subcommittee on Western Official Tour Tells Faith in Future of Park

Yosemite National Park with its recently opened hotel represents the finest thing in park development to be seen anywhere in the United States," declared Representative Cramp-ton of Michigan, member of the Congressional subcommittee having in charge appropriations for the Department of the Interior.

Reaching the approximate half-way mark of their scheduled tour comprising western and middle western States, Representative Cramp-ton and Representative French of Idaho and Taylor of Colorado, the other members of the committee, arrived from Yosemite yesterday morning for a few hours' stay at the Van Nuys, preparatory for departing for Yuma in the evening.

"Yosemite National Park was visited by 600,000 persons this year, representing a greater number than the total visiting all national parks in 1916," said Representative Cramp-ton. He stressed the value of the park as an asset to California and commended the public-spirited men of Los Angeles and San Francisco who made the hotel project possible.

"There is a great future ahead for Yosemite National Park as a winter playground, and as such it will be an ever-greater asset to California than it has been before," he said. "The committee finds the park company is ready to go ahead with a far-reaching program of park development, and it will be the desire of the government to do its part."

"We are greatly impressed by the energetic co-operation in the development of national parks, which is encountered in California. This is not only true of the California Development Association but of many individual citizens of Los Angeles and San Francisco."

WIDOW ASSAILS WILL

Contest Filed in Shirley Estate Seeks to Establish Letter as Testament

A contest over the estate of the late Charles W. Shirley of Redondo Beach, valued at $60,000, was started yesterday with the filing of papers by Mrs. Maggie Shirley, the widow, and Elwood Pomeroy.

A will dated in 1914 whereby the property was ordered divided between a son and a daughter has already been admitted to probate after a previous contest was settled out of court.

The present contestants propose to offer as a later will, however, a letter dated in 1922 wherein Shirley is purported to have directed that Pomeroy serve as executor and that Mrs. Shirley receive one-fourth of the estate, $1000 in cash and the family home.

HARBOR PLAN DISAPPROVED

Navy Department Frowns on Change of Breakwater Line in Extension Project

The Navy Department has disapproved the plan of the United States Board of Engineers for extension of the San Pedro breakwater to Long Beach, entailing an expenditure of $17,500,000, on the grounds that it would destroy the port's value as a naval operating base, it was admitted yesterday by Maj. C. P. Gross, United States District Engineer. Maj. Gross also declared the disapproval will indefinitely delay construction on the project, for which Congress has already approved appropriation pending acceptance of the port unification plan by both Los Angeles and Long Beach.

Naval officials yesterday explained that the original extension plan, as drawn on April 15, 1924, by Maj. E. D. Ardrey, then United States District Engineer, was satisfactory because it included in the protected area the present anchorage areas assigned to the battle fleet.

DREDGING FLEET BASE AUTHORIZED

In order to co-operate with high naval officials in keeping the Pacific Fleet based at the local port, the Harbor Commission yesterday authorized the preparation of plans and specifications for the dredging of the battle-dock anchorage. It is estimated the dredging will cost $25,000. Ordinarily the dredging would be done by the Federal government, but it would require two or three years to obtain an appropriation. Rather than have the fleet moved from the local base during this period, the Harbor Commission decided to bear the expense of deepening the anchorage grounds.

There has been no resiling of the bottom, but recent additions to the armaments of the naval vessels have weighted them down until they draw more water and need a deeper anchorage ground than formerly.

TREATED LIKE CHILD,
WIFE WINS DIVORCE

Mrs. Gladys Hiedel, who charged her husband, Fred Hiedel, with cruelty because, she testified, he spent all his holidays and Sundays away from her, was granted a divorce yesterday by Superior Judge Gould. According to the testimony of Mrs. Hiedel, the husband treated her as a child and when he brought a new suit or wanted any opinion on any of his plans he went to his mother.

MORE FUNDS REQUIRED

As an example, fleet officials yesterday explained that the scheduled concentration of the entire United States Fleet at Los Angeles Harbor next April would be impossible with the new breakwater completed as planned, since practically half of the fleet would be forced by the curtailed area to anchor in the open sea.

The plan, as submitted by the United States Board of Engineers, provides, however, that the original "Ardrey plan" breakwater will be

BURGLARS IN FLINTRIDGE RIFLE HOMEBurton S. Tucker Tells of Losses on Return from Visit to New York

Too much in love to be bothered by the loss of $8000 in jewels and clothing to burglars, Burton S. Tucker, who, in 1923, at the age of 17 married Mrs. Tucker, a widow in her "early forties," went motoring with their two children yesterday after reporting the loss to police.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker returned to their Flintridge home from the East after an absence of several months to find the place thoroughly ransacked with all the jewelry and a good part of their clothing missing. But they were too happy to be greatly troubled. They merely called the police and the Sheriff's office and then departed for their automobile outing.

Included in the stolen jewelry are a pair of diamond earrings, two watches and a diamond lavalliere. The clothing stolen includes a squirrel skin coat, headed opera case, two dresses and several suits belonging to Tucker. Deputy Sheriff Pachman and Atkins say they have a number of clues to the identity of the thieves.

Brazil, Argentina and Uruguay recently signed a contract with a French company for the transportation of mail on a combined airplane and steamer route.

Mildred Marsh
Operated Upon

Building Blamed

Mildred Marsh, sister of Mae Marsh, well-known cinema actress, who worked for three days as a film extra against the orders of her physician while suffering from an attack of appendicitis, yesterday was operated on at the Pasadena Hospital.

Dr. Le Roy Sherry, her physician, said last night the operation was successful and that Miss Marsh's condition is very good.

The young girl, just beginning her film career, worked at the Pasadena hotel lot for three days and collapsed on the set Tuesday. She was working in a picture being made by Adolph Menjou, when stricken. He stopped the picture to go to her assistance. Miss Marsh resides at 6571 Colgate avenue.

The "30-day-test" contest

THOUSANDS have made this famous test—used Postum in place of caffein beverages for a month and noted their progress—and become regular Postum users forever after! Hundreds had written us about it before this contest started. How wonderful it was to find a hot drink that gave them everything except regrets! Now we want to hear from you—whether you are a life-long user of Postum, or only a beginner. The best letter wins $1000! 333 additional cash prizes!

The "Instant Postum made-with-milk" contest

Teachers and mothers throughout America tell us Instant Postum made with milk is the best hot drink for boys and girls. A drink made of whole wheat and bran, plus all the body-building nourishment of milk! Healthful—easy to make—and loved even by the children who "don't like milk!" Tell us why you think Postum is the best hot drink for children! $1000 for the best letter. Hundreds of other prizes!

The "How I make Postum" contest

Some people are enthusiasts for Instant Postum, prepared instantly in the cup with boiling water or hot (not boiled) milk. Others swear by Postum Cereal—prepared by boiling, or in a percolator. Then opinions differ on the proper strength of the drink—whether it should be strong, weak, or "medium." As with other hot drinks, a little experimenting is needed to suit the individual taste. Hundreds of cash prizes for the best letters on the subject—beginning with a $1000 prize!

Read the rules on this page—then enter this nation-wide contest while there is yet time!
